

REFERENCE SHEET

Home menu

Exit Settings

Incisors ☒

Humans have a total of eight incisor teeth. Four of them in the upper jaw and four in the lower jaw. They have sharp edges that help you cut off pieces of food.

Canines ☐

Premolars ☐

Molars ☐

Compare the deciduous (or primary) teeth with the permanent (or secondary) teeth. Feel free to remove the individual teeth to take a closer look at them and to reveal their names. Complete the table with the right header names.

Action needed
When arrow is "grayed out", an action needs to be completed before proceeding

Proceed forward
When arrow is white, click to see more

Finished
Activity completed

click with mouse to select, enter text from keyboard, and use arrows to scroll through

Stylus
Selects objects

Dictionary definitions

incisor

Humans have a total of eight incisor teeth. Four of them in the upper jaw and four in the lower jaw. They have sharp edges that help you cut off pieces of food.

Notebook

Text to speech

Which column defines which teeth? Complete the table with the right header names.

Deciduous teeth	Permanent teeth
- Whiter crown color	- Yellower crown color
- Smaller overall size	- Larger overall size
- Narrower roots	- Wider roots
- Contact areas are broader	- Contact areas are narrower
- First molar is smaller than second molar	- First molar is larger than second molar

Copy all to clipboard Export to PDF Open summary view